One of the challenges of having regular worship services at the Valley Forge Convention Center (VFCC) is room availability. There are two centers: the Radisson hotel (circular fountain) and the Scanticon (blue awning).

Every week we will have a main area for our worship service and side rooms for the children's ministry. The schedule shows the main room where the worship service will take place. Someone at the name tag table will direct you to where the children will be meeting.

If you or a guest arrive at VFCC and do not know where we will be meeting, please check with either the Reader Boards or the Front Desk at VFCC and they will be able to direct you to where we will be that week.

Please note that our meeting rooms are subject to change and our room assignment for the week of Oct. 24 has not yet been determined.

Check our website regularly as any updates and changes will be posted there.
